PROHIBITION ENDS FOR WEST COAST SPEAKEASY

Flash! Chicago--

Capone sez, "It's about time; it only took them bums, out on the coast, two years to put booze in the Syndicate Operation in Monterey. I been telling 'em there was nothing to it, all youse had to do was spread a little juice around. Well they finally took my advice and greased the right palms and right away they got booze.

Mr. Capone was referring to the serving of potent liquid refreshment, now available at the Fashionable Dining Spot on Cannery Row.

The Warehouse management, Frank Netti, said, when interviewed today, "We is gonna serve only the finest rotgut we can blitz steal. After all, we're here to make as much as we can & fast as we can--we ain't concerned if a few guys croak or wind up blind. We've located several sources of booze already and are working on finding more. Two undertakers have agreed to rectify embalming fluid for us, and several nice little old ladies in Pacific Grove have installed small 'bo it yourself' stills in their kitchens. By the way," said Netti, "if any other lit le old ladies are interested in getting into a part time venture have 'em call our franchise dept."

Netti also said, "We are going to do something seldom, if ever done before in most local bars; we are going to PUT SOME BOOZE IN THE DRINKS. It'll be the BIGGEST HORN IN TOWN, we want to get 'em wiped out quick so's we can throw 'em out, it makes for a faster turnover," he concluded.

THE UNTOUCHABLES

GARY RYAN JOINS WAREHOUSE SIX MINUS THREE

(p. u. International) — Gary Ryan, world renowned banjo picker and con man, today joins the smash hit Six Minus Three group at the famous Warehouse on Cannery Row.

Ryan has been on tour for the last year and a half. He mentions successful jobs in Las Vegas, K. C., St. Louie, Chi. and other principal cities. It is this reporter's opinion that "Principal Cities Gary" as he is known in the underworld, has been taking it on the lam, and that he is hiding out here at the Warehouse for a year or longer until the heat cools off.

Gary started his career playing ragtime piano and he ain't progressed too far, but he and Dave (whom we'll talk about later) play some great things on the twin ragtime pianos. This reporter suspects Dave does most of the work, but then he ain't the leader and rank hath its privileges.

Dave "light fingers" Tobiason plays the piano most of the time and has been with us since the joint opened at the start of prohibition, back in "17". Dave is the greatest young ragtime pianist in the western united Monterey Peninsula. And he never took a lesson (unless you count the 2 years he studied at the Adult Conservatory at Soledad, something about "light fingers" in somebody else's pockets. Oh, yes, this guy sometimes plays a mean tuba, made by the Mean Tuba Manufacturing Co.

The newest member is Cowboy Gary Griffith, picking his string bass, which he rides side saddle and plays with great gusto. Gary worked in some of the best Okie bands hereabouts before joining the Six-3 at the Warehouse.

There are one or two other guys that play on weekends (Fri. & Sat.) but we can't tell you much about 'em at this time. It seems as they are wanted by the F. B. I., Secret Service, and a few others, for leaving their last engagement without notice, and they still had one to 14 years left on the contract.
